10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m. CT

10:00 a.m. Welcome & Introductions

10:10 a.m. Tammy Sinkfield-Morey, DNP, MAN, RN, PHN, CRRN – “Attuning to Diversity: Examining our Unconscious Bias in Health Care”

Tammy Sinkfield Morey, DNP, MAN, RN, PHN, CRRN has proudly worked at Gillette Children’s Specialty Healthcare for 23 years and was the first African American nurse hired. In her current role as Nursing Supervisor, and as Co-Chair of the Diversity Inclusion and Cultural Intelligence committee, Tammy remains steadfastly committed to transforming the health care quality and experiences for their patients and their families, and a fierce champion in the elimination of barriers that prohibit an inclusive and equitable environment for all of the staff. Tammy received her Master’s degree in Transcultural Nursing Practice and her Doctorate Degree in Transcultural Nursing Leadership, both from Augsburg College. Tammy is the 2018 March of Dimes Distinguished Nurse of the Year, and the 2019 Minnesota Hospitals Association Caregiver of The Year award winner

12:45 p.m. Break

1:00 p.m. Mary Koloroutis, MSN, RN - “Trauma Informed Facilitation and Post Traumatic Growth”

Mary has spent more than four decades advancing relationship-based cultures in health care organizations. She partners with clients to identify and maximize the strengths and capacities of teams and whole systems. The results speak for themselves: measurable improvement including widespread alignment with core values and principles. Mary has been instrumental in the creation of numerous highly successful programs, including Re-Igniting the Spirit of Caring, adopted by leading health care systems worldwide. She is a co-creator, author, and editor of the Relationship-Based Care series of books and workshops. Her belief in the importance of patient-clinician attunement led to the development of the See Me as a Person workshop and book co-created with psychologist Michael Trout. Most recently, Mary is a contributing author and co-editor of Advancing Relationship-Based Cultures.
